ENATOR MORGAN GIVES HIS VIEWS ON ANNEXATION.

IS JUST BACK FROM HONOLULU.

WITHOUT HAWAII ALASKA WOULD BE DEFENSELESS IN WAR.

No Opposition to Annexation Worth Considering Among the Hawniians-Nearly All Would Re-

Washington, Nov. 18.—Senator Morgan, of Alabama, member of the committee on foreign affairs, has reached here on his return from Honolulu, where he went to post himself on the annexation question. For the first time he submitted himself today to an interview on the results of his trip, and said: "My conclusions, based on the interview of the confirmal trip, and said: "My conclusions, based on the life of P. D. Armour he detailed two officers to guard Mr. Armour's residence, 2115 Prairie avenue. trip, and said: "My conclusions, based on my observations, are only a full confirmation of what I had previously believedthat it is our national duty, and will be in every way advantageous to all concerned, to annex Hawaii to the United States. I have studied the question from the most authentic and reliable sources.

"The establishment of an outpost of the United States within the tropics and 2,200 miles from our coast challenges the inquiry whether such action is necessary to our na-tional welfare. Our Northwestern possessions on the Pacific along the Aleutian archipelago are over 1,000 miles west of Honolulu. This gives us control of practi-cally the entire American coast of the the conference; Samuel B. Capon, chair-

"The intervention of the British possessions from the straits of Fuca to the northern boundary of Alaska creates a power-ful reason for our occupation of Hawaii. for the reopening of the arbitration movefor the reopening of the arbitration move-ment was urged by Senator Edmunds, Mr. Without imputing to Great Britain any other motives than to extend her national policy of commercial conquest, it seems very obvious that if she should acquire with the utmost cordiality and they left him impressed with the belief that he him impressed with the belief that he looked with favor upon the reopening of this important subject. 'Chairman Capen, in speaking of the interview, said: "The feeling through the country, as represented by the press, the pulpit, the platform, the business boards of trade and the labor organizations, is so strong that it is fair to believe that at an early day some plan will be devised which shall result in a permanent treaty, first by the United States and Great Britain, to be followed, it is hoped, by similar treaties with France, Germany and Russia and other European nations." inion of Hawaii and open and fortify Pearl harbor, her military fortress at Esquimalt, on the island of Vancouver, co-operating, would cut our coast line in two and would leave us incumbered with a mass of territory in Alaska whose defense would be almost impossible and the enor-mous advantage of which would be lost to us. The Vancouver coal fields would give the British navy almost irresistible advantage in war, and virtual dominion of mmerce in time of peace.

rinning with Key West, we have annexed the entire Gulf coast to the Rio Grande by purchase of territory, and exnding up the Rio Grande across the conent to the Pacific we have annexed all the territory lying to the north of that and have annexed the entire Pacific and, and have annexed the entire Pacino externe except the frontage of 600 miles conto Great Britain. This rapid and vast expansion has contributed much to civilization and in none of the transactions have week, concluded its work to-day and we cause for regret. I have no least such expansion, especially as to possessions in the Pacific in those islands that constitute a part of the geographical and commentute a part of the geographical and commentus of the second class; patent medicines in single car lots of one kind reduced from limit to second class; chain pumps from we cause for regret. I have no fears of journed. Of the 207 petitions from various branches of trade, the most important single car lots of one kind reduced from first to second class; chain pumps from the character condition or wishes of the 31,000 native people of Hawaii. They are far better adapted to American citizenship than many millions of those we have welcomed here from Southern Europe, and better adapted than the Indians, Mexicans and native Alaskans.

"Except among the few who expect personal favors and advancement from re-establishment of the royal government, the general body of Hawaiian population will related to the case upon delivery of car at station to which consigned, the consignor and consignee to load and unload the same."

general body of Hawaiian population will rejoice in the honor, safety, peace and osperity which annexation will bring. Morally and practically the silent invasion Morally and practically the silent invasion of Hawaii from the Orient (the Japanese) violates all the declared policy and oft expressed purpose of the United States to protect those people against foreign inva
Eyman, Grenada; Joseph Harbour, Attica; George Mower Spring Hill

George Mower Spring Hill

George Mower Spring Hill sion. The islands as a national possession would richly reward us for expenditure of a hundred millions. The annexation would cost us nothing, and will not at present excite the open opposition of any nation."

NANSEN'S NEXT TRIP NORTH.

Two Ships to Go, With More Dogs and More Scientific Men Than

Before. Christiania, Nov. 18.-Hjalmar Johannes the Norwegian army officer who was with Dr. Fridtjof Nansen in the latter's recent John D. Fazel, Wichita; Joseph Scott, Kansas City.

Relssue—Henry Green, Brookville; Warren W. Wait, Bellville.
Original, widows, etc.—Adeline A. M. Barrett, Fort Scott, Scott.
Missouri.
Original—James M. Pickett, Arcola; John C. Mohrstadt, New Florence; William H. Martin, Stillings; Lucian Bequette, Crystal City; George W. Evans, Jamesport.
Additional—Special, November 9, James Felt, Chillicothe.
Restoration and increase—Special, November 6, J. Stanley Gearhart, deceased, Springfield.
Increase—John Fulkerson, Asherville. Arctic expedition, referring to the plans for the doctor's next trip North, says arrangethe doctor's next trip North, says arrangements have already been made for a sojourn on Franz Josef land. The Fram, Nansen's ship, will be accompanied by a large vessel called the Starkodder. There will be many more dogs and more scientific men, and one of the ships will advance through the ice until it becomes icebound. From there sled expeditions will start North. The other ship will go along the ice border, making scientific researches in the ice, in the water, and at the bottom of the sea.

LUNATIC THREATENS ARMOUR. St. Paul Speculator Said to Be on the Way to Chicago to Commit cago has gone to that city with the avowed purpose of killing P. D. Armour. The man is a German or Scandinavian, 40 years old, formerly a detective in the old country.

The crazy speculator was met at the

The crazy speculator was met at the postoffice early last evening by a friend while hurrying to the depot for Chicago. This friend had met the man frequently "on 'change" both here and in Minneapolis, and had often heard him express the most bitter denunciation of "Armour and his bear clique," who, he claims, has persistently "pounded wheat and corn down into the mud." "robbing the American people of millions upon millions of money."

avenue.

The officers were instructed to remain on guard during the night and to keep close watch on all suspicious characters, and to closely question any one found loitering about in the neighborhood of Mr. Armour's

TO URGE ARBITRATION.

Committee of Notables, Headed by Ex-

Senator Edmunds, Visits President McKinley.

Washington, Nov. 18.—A committee of the Mohank international conference, consist-man; Robert Treat Paine, Dr. B. F. True-blood, of Boston, and Phillip G. Garrett, of Philadelphia, called upon President Mc-

The president received the gentlemen

CLASSIFICATION CHANGES.

Committee of Western Lines at Ho

Springs Finishes Its Labors

and Adjourns.

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 18.-The Western

PENSIONS.

George Mower, Spring Hill.

Restoration and additional—Samuel Mc-Call, dead, Perry.

Restoration and increase—Nelson M. Forsythe, Wichita, Increase—Daniel B. Hatfield, Wichita;
John D. Fazel, Wichita; Joseph Scott, Kan-clarsification committee, which has been in session at the Arlington hotel for the past

Capon and others.

Murder. St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 18.-From entirely RELEASED YESTERDAY. reliable sources it is learned that a wheat and corn speculator of Minneapolis who was ruined by the wheat slumps in Chi-

PROBABLY HAVE AGREED NOT TO RETURN TO CUBA.

ture of the Competitor a Year Ago Last April-Were Once Sentenced to Death.

prisoners.

petitor prisoners. They are: Alfred Laborde, a native of New Orleans, La., master of the Competitor, an American schooner, owned by Joseph Wells, of Key West. He was arrested on the charge of landing arms for the insurgents. William Gilden, a naturalized citizen of Charles Barnett, a British subject, stew-

Cuba.

Charles Barnett, a British subject, steward of the Competitor, also arrested on land on the same charge.

The capture of the Competitor occurred on Saturday, April 25, 1886, near Berracos, San Cayetano, Cuba. The Competitor is the only vessel that has ever been captured by the Spanish patrol. Captain Laborde asserted at the time that he took on board at Key West as passengers for Lemon City, Fla., twenty-four men, who seized the ship and then went to Cape Sable, where they took on board twenty-three men and munitions of war, and then sailed for Cuba. The expedition was landed, but the capture of the men named followed.

Consul General Ramon O, Williams, who was in charge in Havana when the American citizens were taken off the Competitor, lost no time in demanding that they be tried under the terms of the Cushing protocol of January 12, 1877, which was agreed upon by the two governments regarding to the effect of existing treaties in matters of judicial procedure.

This protocol provides that "no citizen of the United States residing in Spain or adjacent islands or her ultramarine possessions, charged with acts of sedition.

Springfield.
Increase—John Fulkerson, Asherville.
Original, widows, etc.—Abraham Constable, father, Adel; Amanda F. Jacobs, Kirksville; Lucy Ann Gossett, Holden; special. November 6, Mary A. Gearhart, Springfield; special, November 8, Julia P. Wilson, Westville; Elizabeth Quernhelm, St. Louis; Harriet M. Jenkinson, St. Louis. ice border, making scientific researches in the ice, in the water, and at the bottom of the sea.

An American girl who recently had an interview with Mr. Gladstone says that, although he is much older than the queen, he looks much younger and still carries himself as erect as most men twenty years his junior.

ONA MELTON IS FREE.

MEMBERS OF COMPETITOR CREW

HAVE SAILED FOR NEW YORK.

Have Reen in Prison Since the Cap-

Havana, Nov. 18.-In pursuance of cabled instructions from Spain, received yester-day, Captain General Blanco to-day released from Cabana fortress Alfred Laborde, Charles Barnett, Ona Melton and William Gildea, members of the crew of the American schooner Competitor, cap-tured in April, 1896, by the Spanish gunboat Mesagra on a charge of filibustering. They were delivered to the American and British consuls, and have taken passage on the steamer Saratoga, of the Ward line, for

Washington, Nov. 18.-Minister Woodford has telegraphed the state department that the Spanish cabinet has notified him that the queen has pardoned the Competitor

It is not doubted here that the prisoners are liberated on some such conditions as were imposed in the case of former prisoners-that is, that they will not return to Cuba. After their bitter experience in the Cuban jails it is not believed here that the men will be disposed to violate any under standing of this kind to which they may There were four men known as the Com-the United States; mate of the Competi-tor; was arrested on a similar charge. Ona Melton, a citizen of Kansas, a cor-respondent for a Key West newspaper, who shipped on the Competitor to go to

This protocol provides that "no citizen of the United States residing in Spain or adjacent islands or her ultramarine possessions, charged with acts of sedition, treason or conspiracy against the institutions, public security, the integrity of the territory or against the supreme government, or any other crime whatsoever, shall be subject to trial by any exceptional tribunal, but exclusively by the ordinary jurisdiction, except in the case of being captured with arms in hand"

In the latter case it is further provided that when they are taken with arms in hand they shall be tried by ordinary council of war and are entitled to name attorneys and advocates, who shall have access to them at suitable times, and that they shall be furnished with a copy of the accusation and a list of witnesses of the prosecution, which shall be examined by the attorneys and advocates. On this ground Consul General Williams protested against the summary court-martial which was to take place.

The Spanish authorities asserted that the Competitor prisoners were not embraced in the treaty because they were not resi-

The Spanish authorities asserted that the Competitor prisoners were not embraced in the treaty because they were not residents of Spanish territory, and they found them guilty of conspiracy and rebellion.

The death sentence was thought to be awaiting the prisoner, and Consul General Williams telegraphed so to Secretary of State Olney, and the latter replied, in which among other things he said:

"Make same representations and request to the governor general, urging that the request of the United States for delay, which would be proper in any case, would be especially so in view of the extremely questionable jurisdiction of the court-martial trial, which can be justified only by a new, strained and technical construction of the treaty stipulations, and which is contrary to their spirit, their fair interpretation, and to the intent of the parties at the time they were entered into, as clearly shown by their correspondence."

It was developed in the testimony taken in the case that the prisoners were not taken with arms in their hands, and this further confirmed the position of the United States that they should be granted an ordinary civil trial.

When it was recently announced that the prisoners would again be tried by court-martial the state department was preparing to make a further protest, but positive assurances having been given that the men would be pardoned, even if convicted, no objection was raised.

WEYLER ARRIVES IN SPAIN.

Was Enthusiastically Received by His Admirers at Corunna Yesterday Afternoon. Ccronna, Spain, Nov. 18.—The Spanish steamer Montserrat, which left Havana on Sunday, October 31, with General Weyler, the former captain general of Cuba, on board, and which subsequently touched at Gibara, and at Porto Rico, arrived here unexpectedly to-day. She was not due to arrive here, according to the announce ments, until Friday evening. As soon as possible after the Montserrat was signalled crowds of people flocked to the barbor from all parts of the city and a fleet of boats filled with admirers of Gereral Weyler started to meet the steamer and escort her to her quay.

Every craft of every description that the port afforded was chartered to convey individuals, societies and clubs to the Montserrat A number of deputations went on board the vessel. The commandant of Corunna had a brief interview with General Weyler, simply conveying him the desire of the queen regent and the government to receive him as speedily as possible at Madrid. General Weyler did not go on shore. He has decided to remain on the Montserrat until she reaches Barcelona, for which port she will sail direct at 6 o'clock to-morrow morning. Thus far there has been no disturbance of any kind whatever.

The newspaper campaign for and against was signalled crowds of people flocked to The newspaper campaign for and against

The newspaper campaign for and against a pepular demonstration in honor of General Weyler is so fierce that the editor of the anti-Weyler paper, La Vose de Galicla, has challenged the editor of the Weyler organ, El Nord-Quest, to fight a duel.

As previously cabled, the moderate Republicans and Carlists are in favor of the demonstration, while the Republicans, Liberals and Socialists are opposed to it and are organizing for a counter demonstration,

DISEASE AND DEATH RULE. Letter Tells of Terrible Distress in the Once Prosperous City of Matangas. Boston, Nov. 18.-A letter was received here to-day from Captain Charleson, of the four-masted schooner Clara E. Randall, of Portland, Me., now in port at Matanzas. Cuba, which tells of the great distress and suffering in Cuba. The schooner left Philadelphia with a cargo of coal about a month ago and the letter was written by Captain Charleson soon after the vessel arrived there two weeks ago.

Captain Charleson says that Matanzas is filled with fever-stricken and dying soldiers, and that hundreds of pacificos are dying every week. It is no uncommon sight on the streets to see men lying in the gutter in their last agonies, and to see the death carts slowly creeping about gathering up their loads of bodies. The people seem to be helpless in their misery and not only is yellow fever playing havoc with them, but they are dying of starvation by scores. Captain Charleson says that he has not been ashore very much since his arrival, for fear of catching the fever, and he intends Portland, Me., now in port at Matanzas

If you wish to learn the state of the weather, you must consult a barometer.

If you wish to know the state of your health, your body is a natural barometer.

If you seem to lack energy, and feel tired, there is something the matter with your circulation. If you are bilious, constipated, dyspeptic, nervous, you need something to tone up your digestive or-

If you feel a sudden cold or chill, bear in mind it may lead to pneumonia. If you feel any or all of these symptoms, remember that

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is the safest and best thing you can take to get rid of them. There is no other whiskey like it, and nothing else that can possibly take its place. to get his vessel unloaded and away as to get his vesser unloaded and services soon as possible.

Matanzas, which was once one of the busiest ports on the island, is now almost deserted, he says, and everywhere there is death and pestilence.

TO REVOKE WEYLER ORDER. Spanish Government Will Soon Permit the Shipment of Tobacco From Havana.

Washington, Nov. 18 .- Senor Dupuv de Lome, the Spanish minister, had a conference with Assistant Secretary Day this morning, and it is believed that the Spanish government is voluntarily about to remove another troublesome factor from the field of negotiations in revoking the decree made by Weyler prohibiting the exportation of tobacco from Cuba. This prohibition has worked hardship on large American cigarmaking interests, and up to this time all efforts of the state department to secure an amelioration of the harsh conditions of the decree have been unavaling. The reason set up by General Wevler for the order was the necessity of keeping in Havana the supply of tobacco necessary to run the domestic cigar facories, and thus, by giving employment to workmen, keep them from drifting away nto the insurgent ranks. It was a matter of common report, however, that another potent reason was a desire to cripple the Cuban cigarmakers in the United States, from whom the insurgents drew funds. It now seems probable that the decree soon will be vacated. Reports that come from Washington are to the effect that the new crop of tobacco that will be ripe in February next is of excellent quality, and amounts to four-fifths of an average crop. Buyers for foreign consumers are already in the field.

TREED A FLYING MACHINE. Connecticut Hunter Runs Across Unexpected Game - Mystery of Bewitched Mountain Explained.

The mystery of Candlewood mountain, which has puzzled the residents of New Milford, Conn., for more than three years, has been solved. Some said the mountain was bewitched. During these three years Fredrick T. Buck, of New Milford, has periodically dissappeared. Somehow people began to associate him with the mystery of Candlewood mountain. Sometimes Buck would appear in surrounding towns with a companion, who talked and looked !ke a foreigner. They would come into town with a team and make purchases of provisions, also wire, rope, canvas, chains, cog wheels, bars of steel, whalebone, electric supplies, gas stoves and umbrellas. Two weeks ago Walter A. Logan, of New Milford, who hunts with a telescope rifle instead of a shotgun, broke his telescope. He sent it to a Bridgeport optician to be repaired. By some misunderstanding, the optician affixed a lens five times stronger than the original one. Yesterday Logan was part way up Candlewood mountain after partridge and quall. Through his telescope he picked out some game, but when he fired he missed. He kept on up the mountain and turned his telescope in all directions. Suddenly he saw a monster flapping its wings.

"Now." said Logan, "I guess I can hit dlewood mountain. Sometimes Buck

Suddenly he saw a monster flapping its wings.

"Now." said Logan, "I guess I can hit that. It's big enough."

So he pulled the trigger and expected to see the aerial monster show signs of pain. Instead, it kept on flapping its wings. He kept up a running fire for some time. At last he saw through his telescope that the animated monster was held down by chains.

Logan climbed on up and came upon a hut and shed nearby, in which were a grindstone and various mechanical tools. Not far from the shed were several trees sawed off, and to the stumps were attached chains. These fastenings led up to the flapping affair, which proved to be a flying machine. Buck was standing on the ground, and in the machine was the foreigner.

Buck was dismayed by Logan's appear-on the ground, and in the machine was the foreigner.

Buck was dismayed by Logan's appearance. He offered him all sorts of inducements to keep quiet. Logan, however, could not keep the secret, and as soon as he got back to New Milford told his wife,
In less than an hour half of New Milford heard the news.

A GIRL'S RECREATION.

Exercise Properly Indulged in the Best Thing to Keep Her in Tone.

Recreation, properly managed, is not only conducive to health, but to good looks spirits. Dancing, for instance, is a splendid recreation, but where a delicate girl is allowed to dance all night in over-splendid recreation, but where a delicate girl is allowed to dance all night in overheated rooms, consequently spending the best hours of the rext day in a close bedroom, it ceases to do any good whatever, and she looks faded and dull long before she ought.

Theaters, lawn tennis, golf, hockey, rowing, and, indeed, all kinds of amusements and exercises are often so over indulged in that a young girl often becomes aninvalid in after years in consequence.

When the girl is in her first two or three seasons her mother should be most perticular that her hours are not too late. Take her away before a ball begins to draw near its close, refuse all theater supper parties, avoid too late hours of all kinds. Resist the pleasure of dragging her to a half dozen things the same night: and long before the season is over, send her to your country house, or to the sea, or to the mountains.

In these days of rush and over strain, exercise and recreation, properly indulged in will be the best thing to keep people in tone, and they are so valuable that the greatest care should be taken never to over indulge in them.

greatest care should over indulge in them.

COL. BRADBURY'S CLOSE CALL The Millionaire Whose Wife Eloped With Ward Narrowly Escapes Death Far at Sea.

John Bradbury, of Los Angeles, whose wife eloped with an Englishman named Ward and was subsequently taken back by her husband, had a narrow escape from death by starvation, off the Mexican coast. He was adrift on the ocean from October 20 to October 25, much of the time without food and wholly at the mercy of a tropical tempest that buffered him further and further seaward.

His companion was the engineer of the steam launch they were in. After burning their small boat and every scrap of Inflammable stuff they had aboard they had to sit idly, hoping for rescue. When it finally came Colonel Bradbury paid $1,000 to get ashore. Colonel Bradbury was on his way from his mines at Rosario, Mexico, to Mazatlan when he met disaster. He left his wife at Rosario.

Colonel Bradbury said he gave up hope when they failed to see a sail after five days' scanning of the sea and without as much as an oar with which to reach shore. He was adrift on the ocean from October much as an oar with which to reach shore No Fiction, Either.

From the Detroit Free Press. He-"Who is your favorite writer?" She-"My guardian. He signs all checks, you know."

AS THE SHERIFF TELLS IT.

HOW A BARTON COUNTY MOB STRUNG UP TWO MEN.

Sheriff Lee Livingstone Tells How the Two Men Were Taken Away From Him and Tortured Until They Confessed.

"It's no fun to face a mob that is armed and determined to take prisoners from an officer, especially when the mob is com-posed of substantial citizens who have studied on the thing and are determined to do just what they had planned," is the way Sheriff Lee Livingstone, of Barton county, expressed his feelings to a report-The Journal last evening at the Adams house.

Sheriff Livingstone had an experience last Tuesday evening that gave him good grounds for that belief. He had arrested two farmers a few miles from Lamar on the charge of criminal assault and, with City Marshal Rice, of Lamar, was taking them to the county jail. Driving along the country road they were surprised as they came to a crossroads to have about fifty men spring from behind a hedge, stop the team, pull both officers from the gy and take the men to a tree. This was old in a special to The Journal. This i the way Sheriff Livingstone last nigh told his experiences:
"We were in a double seated covered carriage. I was on the front seat with one prisoner, the city marshal was on the rear seat with the other. Just as we were rear seat with the other. Just as we were at the crossroads, the horses shied to one side as a gang of men appeared and as I reined them up a man shoved a big pistol at my breast and told me to behave. My pistol was in the side pocket of my overcoat. I fished it out and put it in his face and he let his pistol fall down. Just as I felt certain I had him, a whole swarm of men appeared. I can't tell how many. Someone caught my arm and wrenched it back and tore the weapon out of my grasp and pulled me bodily out of the rig. As I was pulled out on one side, the city marshal was pulled out over the back seat and we saw our prisoners pulled out on the other side. There were men all about us. They held the horses. They had a crowd of a dozen to march the city marshal and myself through a cornfield a hundred yards off and keep us there while the rest of them handled the prisoners. "Of course. I don't know of my own knowledge what they did with the prisoners, They said they had hanged them and forced them to tell about the assault. Both men admitted it finally and implicated two others, one of whom I have now in jail with them. They swung the men up two or three times before they told the facts. I can't tell yet whether their confession is true or not, but one part of it connects very closely with some evidences found at the scene of the crime.

"After the two men had been swung three times and saw they had to tell, they made their little confession to save their necks. After that was done the crowdeput them back in the buggy and sent for our guards to bring the city marshal and myself back to the buggy. We found the men very limp and penitent when we got them again and the crowd assuring me they had no intention of harming any officer or of interfering with the law, said they had taken the short route to justice in what they had done, and had found out in twenty minutes what it would have required a year to do in the courts, and it had not cost the county a cent. They assuring me they had been done that would be done a at the crossroads, the horses shied to one side as a gang of men appeared and as I

LIFE IN DAWSON CITY. me of Its Features as Told by a Correspondent of the Alaska

Miner.

Dawson next spring will be the greatest nining camp known to the civilized world. It's a pretty "hot" town now.

Everything is high. Board by the day while provisions last, $4.50. Eggs $1 each, and somewhat "passe" at that. Cabins rent from $85 to $100 a month.

Champagne sells for $17 a bottle, and by spring it will be $50, when money is flush. Cordwood is $25 a cord, regardless of the fact that there is plenty of timber handy. Everything goes here from penny anto to manslaughter.

There are many deprivations here. The hardships owing to climate and coarse food make living here a burden, regardless of the glittering gold at one's feet only waiting to be picked up.

We are all anxious to make a fortune, but I would rather be an insignificent lanmpost in Juneau than an "Eldorado King" here.

For humanity's sake send me something to read or I shall go crazy.

Here is a copy of the first theatrical programme in Dawson:

ARCTIC MUSIC HALL. rent from $85 to $100 a month.

ARCTIC MUSIC HALL

-TO-NIGHT-

Grand Entertainment Headed by the Belle of Kentucky. MISS MAUDE ROSELLE In Pleasing Songs Peculiar to the Southern People.

Pleasing Serio-Comic and Soubrette MISS GUSSIE LA MORE In Sparkling Songs and Dances Now She Comes! The Eldorado Queen MISS VIOLET RAYMOND Also Queen of the Highland Fling.

The Irish Midget, FRED BREEN In Irish Irishisms.

This Grand Bill to Conclude with a Roaring Farce, Entitled WHY THE H-L DID I LEAVE HOME? Admission, $1.00.

Now a Flower Bath.

Now a Flower Bath.

The latest whim of pretty and fashionable women is a flower bath. For strengthening the muscles of the neck, shoulders and arms nothing is more efficacious, they say. These warm baths may last with safety a quarter of an hour, followed by a shower bath, and the treatment two or three times a week will, it is said, put the body in a healthy condition and give the skin a delightful appearance and soft touch. The baths are all prepared in the same way. Rose leaves, crushed violets, hay flowers, oat straw, and pine sprigs can all be used. The flowers chosen should be put in a bag and boiling water poured over them, the bag and water boiling for ten minutes. The boiling water is then cooled and added to the prepared bath. Hay flowers are really the remains of stalks, leaves, blossoms and seeds, even the hay itself. An oat straw bath is made by boiling the stalks and heads of oats for half an hour in a kettle and then pouring the decoction into the bath tub.

For the pine sprig bath gather fresh twigs, small branches and small cones, cut them into bits, put them in a bag, and boil them half an hour. The chief effect of this bath on the skin is to bring it into activity and renovate it at once. Besides, its fragrance makes it delightful.

SENOR ROBLEDO.

The Spanish leader who is Weyler's champion.

MAKING GOLD BRICKS.

r, the bulk of the gold brought down by

Bogus Kind, but the Real Genuine Klondike Article. According to the Seattle Post-Intelligence

he Portland was shipped away to Sar Francisco and Helena, but a considerable amount of it found its way into mercial channels of this city through th mercial channels of this city through the process of melting down into bars and its purchase by banks. All day long recently Joseph Mayer was easting bricks, and the process was as simple as that of the same application to running off a lot of plowshares or firebacks for stoves, only infinitely more interesting.

The casting was done in the shops fronting on Cherry street, and during the day about $20,000 was handled. In the Second avenue window of the concern was a pan containing $1,000 worth of dust and nuggets and a curious crowd pressed around the men and the crowd assuring met had no intention of harming any office had about 5,000 was handled. In the same of the public, the same as tho them again and the crowd to listlete in which had no intention of harming any office had taken the short route to justice in which they had done, and had found out in twenty had done, and had found out in the had the county a cent. They assured me all had the county a cent. They assured me all had the county a cent. They assured me all had they had done, and had found out in the had they are they are the had they are the had they are they are the had they are they are the had they are the had they are they are they are they are they are they are the had they are they are they are they are they are they are the had they are the had they are the had they are they are they are the had the manner they are the had they are they are they are they are the had they are they are they are the had the had they are the had the had they are the had the

Quite Able to Res-

From the Chicago Post. It seemed to him an excellent time to impress the lesson upon her, so as he started for his hat he said to her:

the evening with you before we were mar-ried, and I had planned to do something eise."
"Suppose I had," she returned. "What of it?"
"You wouldn't have sulked, would you?"

"Suppose you had wanted me to spend

"No-o, I suppose not," she replied hes-itatingly.

"You wouldn't have got cross and been disagreeable about it, would you?"
"Probably not."

sweetheart?"

Somehow he couldn't help feeling that his lesson was lost on her, but it is worthy of note that he told a business associate the next day that any man who went on the thory that a woman can't reason as clearly as a man was laying up a large store of trouble for himself.

A MAN'S DEN.

One Corner of the House Where He May Pursue His Especial "Hobby."

If there be a man in the house and a room to spare, set it apart for his den, says an exchange. Let it be as far re-room to spare, set it apart for his den, says an exchange. Let it be as far removed as possible from noise and the numberless unintentional but nevertheless disturbing interruptions of members of the household and others, coming and going, for quiet is a prime requisite of the den. Aside from this, if located "upstairs" and out of the way of callers, its possible disorder is kept in a measure under cover, to the great peace of mind of the tidy housewife.

To the manly man the den offers a room in which he can be as thoughtless of appearance as he pleases, answerable to no one but himself for the consequences: where he may conduct himself as best suits the mood that is upon him; where he may retire for reflection, for study, for work or to pursue his especial "hobby, safely removed from all possible annovance to others and the unwilling interrubtion of members of the household; where every one is welcome who will take him and the apartment without explanation, and where, in a word, he may let the mas that is in him crop out to his heart's cortent and in such a manner as he may elect.

NO CHAINS ON MAGAZINES.

VISITORS TO LIBRARY MAY USE THEM AS THEY WILL.

Extra Copies to Be Kept Regularly in the Reading Room-Four Schools Have Been Made Library Sub-Stations.

Upon the recommendation of Mrs. Whitney, the librarian, the board of education last night ordered two each of the leading magazines of the country placed on the tables in the reading room of the library for the use of the public, the same as the newspapers. Mrs. Whitney said she did not think the present system of requiring the in the fall and are admitted. In this manner, the committee stated, a number of rupils get into the high school without taking the sixth or seventh grades in the ward schools. The principals suggested that the board make a rule requiring all crivance examinations to the high schools to be given under the supervision of a committee selected from the ward school principals. The matter was deferred until the rext meeting.

The board ordered the schools closed next Thursday and Friday for Thanksgiving. The proposition of the Jackson County Medical Association to give its library of medical books to the public library was accepted by the board.

BEDSPREADS OF NET.

lovelties That Are as Pretty as They Are Dainty-Something for a Girl's Bedroom.

"You would have been just as nice and sweet and clever as you possibly could be" he asserted. "You would have been both lovable and loving and wou'd have tried to coax me to give up my other plans. Isn't that so?"

"Perhaps it is," she faltered, "but —"
"Never mind the "buts," he interrupted, feeling that he was gaining his point. What I am trying to impress upon you is that a woman doesn't seem to think it worth while to try the same arts on a husband that she does on a lover. That's where you're both foolish and unjust. Now, you admit that before marriage." "Before marriage." "Before marriage." "Before marriage." "It had merely looked at you pleading ly what would have happened to that other engagement?"

"Tenalh—well. I suppose—"
""Tenalh—well. I suppose—"
""Tenalh—well. I suppose—"
""Really you don't give me time to answer. I must confess that in all probability I would have—"
""Really ou don't give me time to answer. I must confess that in all probability I would have—"
"Given it up. of course," she prompted. "Isn't it worth while to make the same sacrifices for a wife that you do for a sweetheart?"

Somehow he couldn't help feeling that his beson was lost on her, but it is worthy.

Light Front in New Orleans. New Orleans, Nov. 18.—A light frost was reported this morning and the weather continues cool, though the effect on the fever will not be apparent for a few days yet. There were six new cases and two deaths to-day. The quarantine has lightened in a number of places, but no general action has been taken as yet.

To Collect Her Judgment. New York, Nov. 18.—Mrs. Fiore Lillian Var Schnack started for Chicago to-day to try to collect the $55,000 from her father-in-law, Peter Van Schnack, the millionaire drug man of Chicago, which a Brooklyn jury awarded her for the alienation of her husband's affections.

Don't Neglect That Cold

No matter how alight it may seem to you, for Cougho Coids, Hoarsones, inducent and apparently insignificant thest Pnins often lead to Pfeuriny, Promoning. Communition and other fatal Lung Discounts of the projected.

Benson's PorousPlaster

RECEPTION COSTUME-FROM BON TON.